Why do they drive on the left in Britain and on the right in other (61).....? The reason for this goes back to the days when people travelled by horse . Most people are right-handed , and thus the left is the natural side to ride on if you are on horseback and need your right hand to (62)..... a sword in case of trouble . So why didn't the rest of the world do the same ? Because of Napoleon Bonaparte . He (63)..... that his armies marched on the right , and as he marched through Europe , he imposed this rule (64)..... he went . The question suggests that only the British drive on the left , but in fact , out of 178 countries in the world , there are about 50 that drive on the left , (65)..... Japan. However , most of them are former British colonies.

Different language learners learn words in different ways.Some learners make a list and put into it the meanings of the new words in their (66)..... tongue , and try to learn them by heart . However,others do not . Instead , they write one or two (67)..... sentences with each new word in order to remember how to use the word in the right way.

In order to remember words (68)..... ,some learners even write each word and its use on a small piece of paper and stick it somewhere in their house so as to learn it any time.Many language learners do not try to learn all new words they come across.They usually underline or highlight only the words they want to learn.This helps them remember (69) words.

Learners do not only learn the meanings of new words but also how to spell and pronounce them so as to use them in both (70)and speaking.

If you are invited to someone's house in America for dinner , you should bring a gift , such as a bunch of flowers or a box of chocolates . If you give your host a wrapped gift , he or she may open it in front of you . Opening a present in front of the gift-giver is considered polite . It shows that the host is excited about receiving the gift and want to show his or her appreciation to you immediately . Even if the host doesn't like it , he or she will tell a "white lie" and say how much they like the gift to prevent the guest from feeling bad.

If your host asks you to arrive at a particular time , you should not arrive exactly on time or earlier than the expected time , because this is considered to be potentially inconvenient and therefore rude , as the host may not be ready.
